

Who am I to teach your kids?

My name is

Michael
Andoscia

Qualifications

I have a Masters Degree in Sociology
My Bachelors is in Social Science
Education

I have twenty-seven years experience in teaching and counseling

- * I began my career as a wilderness counselor for delinquent boys
- * I taught ESE at the Middle and High School levels
- * While working for a private school I taught all subject areas at the High School level
- * I've taught AICE and AP for Ten years

I've also taught at the college level at Florida Southwestern State College (Formerly Edison). And Florida Gulf Coast University. I know what it takes to prepare students for college!

What students can expect from me

1. High standards: The standards do not change
2. High expectations: I expect students to work to their best ability
3. Support: To meet those high standards
4. Knowledge: I know my stuff
5. My guarantee: A student who does everything I tell them to do will pass my class.

Among students who did ALL of the work assigned last year, the average grade was an 85%

My expectations of students and parents

- Prepared for class: Have an appropriate writing implement, a college composition book or spiral notebook, your Chromebook and any assigned text.
- Positive attitude: You can be successful if you try
- Honesty
